Retreat Days

Many people have discovered the benefits of attending the retreat days at Tŷ'r Pererin. Each day offers opportunity to explore one's own spiritual journey inspired by a varied programme in the company of other pilgrims. The forthcoming 2016/17 programme offers creative ways to reflect and respond as we grow in faith, exploring and deepening our journey with God.

Why go on Retreat?

Retreats may be an answer to modern living giving us time away from the daily routine in order that we can find peace, calm and restored balance in life. But this idea of finding space to reflect is not new, it has ancient roots. We see Jesus finding space to be with his Father and to teach his disciples. The practice of retreating for spiritual growth developed with the Desert Fathers and much later St Ignatius introduced us to spiritual exercises. From this has developed the modern retreat with its emphasis on contemplative, creative and inspirational prayer and reflection.

As well as the programme of retreat days, Tŷ'r Pererin can offer your group or parish a guided retreat. As well as offering rest and refreshment for each individual, the spiritual journey is shared with the community. There's opportunity for Biblical reflection, focussed and creative prayer as well as chance to join in the daily round of worship at the cathedral. There's space for pilgrimage in the locality, sight-seeing and tour of the cathedral. There's time for rest, fellowship and sharing as you receive hospitality from Tŷ'r Pererin.
